INVESTWAY FUND SP. Z.O.O. registered in Poznań and operating at, ul. Józefa Sowińskiego 18a, Poznań, Wielkopolskie, 60-283, Poland, hereinafter referred to as Investor/1st party and represented by,

Świdorski Andrzej Witold,

Offers service to attract investment for business development/economic activities and project implementation in the sectors/industries of interest specified above.

The scheme of cooperation is described below.

General Requirements

- Preliminary contract

Carefully read the preliminary contract provided, sign it if you are satisfied, and return a copy. In the contract, you will find a non-disclosure clause and other obligations for attracting investment through our firm.

- Project Evaluation

Alongside the signed contract, send a business plan, feasibility study, or presentation of the proposed project for evaluation. The process of attracting investment is highly competitive and only the most viable projects are selected. If the proposal meets the requirements, funding applications will be made to potential investors who will then make their final decisions. In the event of a negative decision from one investor, we shall be committed to continuing to seek other investors who may accept to invest. A positive investment decision shall be in the form of a letter of intent signed by our company and the investor.

- Funding conditions

Be fully aware that the funding conditions differ among investors and as such they cannot be established until a positive decision has been obtained from a particular investor who may be interested and decide to fund the project. Our firm cannot influence these conditions, but we shall ensure a mutually beneficial relationship is established between you and an investor and oversee the negotiation process.
